Zoom Calls Facilitator – Description (Year-Round – University/College students)

The Awakening Project is an interfaith project examining social justice topics and prophetic voices.

This project will be of interest to students who have a passion for social justice and interfaith topics and concerns.

The work involves finding a few friends, or others, who might be interested in the vision of this project and facilitating Zoom discussions with them.

Plan: Building on the experience of our summer student-led project, we are offering the following opportunity to university/college students.

A $50.00 honorarium is being offered to university/college students to organize and facilitate a Zoom discussion.

- The host student will select a podcast or article from those available on The Awakening Project website at www.awakeningproject.ca. (On our website's menu, hover your cursor on "Resources", then click on "Meetings" for an archive of past meetings.)
- The student will then prepare a summary of these podcasts or articles and a list of questions for discussion, and create a PowerPoint presentation, containing the summary and questions. See an example here: <https://awakeningproject.ca/2020/08/26/meeting-no-4/>.
- The student will find 3 or more friends who are prepared to listen to the podcasts selected, and to review the questions - prior to meeting on-line or in person.
- The student will organize a 45–60-minute Zoom meeting to discuss the selected podcast or article.
- Upon completion of the Zoom call, the host-student will gather the responses throughout the discussion and insert them into the PowerPoint. Along with that, the host student will also write a reflection, recounting what happened at the discussion as well as some of their thoughts about the session. These two components will be sent to one of the Project Coordinators of The Awakening Project.
- The host student will be paid a $50.00 honorarium per Zoom call. A student can host multiple Zoom conversations, with each discussion with a new topic from The Awakening Project's website.
